Thirteenth Question.

The Thirteenth Question was taken up. Oneonta District was called. The character of A. J. Van Cleft, its Presiding Elder, was passed and he read his report as follows:

ONEONTA DISTRICT.

During the year the angel of death has visited three of the parsonages on the district. On the 17th day of July, after a protracted illness, Fannie Robbins, the young and loving wife of Brother Frank N. Smith, of Windsor, passed peacefully to her rest.

"She vanished, we cannot say she died,
'Twas a narrow space did heaven and earth divide;
So early, death succeeded life in her;
She did but dream of heaven, and she was there."

Sister Smith was a rare spirit. She possessed a fine mind with splendid attainments and was well fitted for her work. She had the love and esteem of the entire Church. Her death was a great loss.

October 4th, Elma Stanton, the excellent wife of Brother Egbert Kilpatrick, of Bainbridge, fell asleep in death. Her sickness was of short duration, and her death was sudden and unlooked for by most of us.

"But that she died we only have to show
The mortal part of her she left below;
The rest, so smooth, so peacefully she went,
Looked like translation through the firmament."

Quiet and unassuming but few knew her worth. She possessed a beautiful character and good judgment. The entire community as well as her family mourn her departure.

On Sunday evening, December 13, Brother James Benge, who was supplying the Harpursville charge, was stricken with paralysis and died January 11th. Brother Benge, after spending some time in Missionary work in South America, returned two years ago for a year's vacation, hoping to regain his failing health. Last spring, not being strong enough to return to that field of labor, took work at home. He was a man of ripe scholarship and was a good preacher. For twelve years before coming to America he occupied a professor's chair in one of the leading Methodist Colleges in England. His end was a grand triumph of grace.

"Calm on the bosom of our God,
Fair spirit, rest thee now,
E'en while with us thy footsteps trod,
His seal was on thy brow.
Dust to its narrow house beneath,
Soul to its place on high;
They that have seen thy look in death
No more may fear to die."

The year has been one of very great financial depression. Perhaps no district in the Conference, owing to the failure of one of our leading agricultural products, has suffered for the past few years as we.

Had we fallen far behind in our benevolent collections, I should not have been greatly surprised. Yet according to the reports which have been sent to me we are fully up to last year and very far in advance of six years ago.

The salaries of the preachers have come slowly. There have been dark days for some of the brethren, but I think the clouds have generally lifted, as most of the salaries will be reported paid in full.

We have made some improvements this year on church and parsonage property, and have also paid considerably on past indebtedness.

Schenevus has spent about $200 on church repairs. Port Crane has placed a new organ in the church, for which they are entirely indebted to the enterprise of their most efficient pastor, Brother McDonald. New stained glass windows adorn the church at McClure, and a lot has been secured and quite a sum pledged towards the erection of a church at Gulf Summit on this charge Our people at Nineveh have purchased new seats for their church and are making other necessary improvements.

Masonville has paid one hundred dollars on indebtedness and fully met all the demands for the year. Brother Brundle, the earnest pastor, deserves great credit for the grand work he has done.

East Worcester has paid six hundred dollars, the balance in full, for the new parsonage built a year ago.

Sidney has paid seven hundred dollars on previous indebtedness, and Oneonta a small sum.

Fly Creek has fitted up a prayer-room and added largely to the seating capacity of the church.

The old parsonage at Unadilla has given place to a beautiful modern house, which is now occupied by the pastor. The church has been greatly beautified with a very fine steel ceiling, and with paper and paint, and otherwise very much improved. The whole cost. amounting to about $2,000, has been fully provided for. Brother Benedict, the popular pastor, has wrought wonders on this charge this year.

At Sidney Centre we have bought lots and built a beautiful church at a cost of $6,100, and the sum pledged at the time of the dedication considerably more than provided for the balance of the indebtedness. An eligible site has been secured at Young's Station on this charge, and a new church is now being built. Money to complete its erection has been subscribed. Much credit is due the enterprising pastor, Brother Reynolds.

Improvements, more or less extensive, have been made and debts paid on church and parsonage property at Davenport, Fergusonville, Decatur, North Sanford, Mount Vision, Otego, Port Crane, Ouaquaga, Bainbridge, Davenport Centre and Laurens.

Revival meetings have been held in nearly all the churches with more or less success. The work may not have been quite as general as last year, and yet there have been conversions on most of the charges. They are reported as follows: Schenevus, 80; East Worcester, 80; Nineveh and Harpursville, 72; Masonville, 30; Middlefield and Pleasant Brook, 33; Westford and Elk Creek, 46; Afton, 35; Sanitaria Springs, 43; Sidney, 50; Westville, 26; Decatur, 28; McClure and Sanford, 40; Fergusonville and Davenport, 28; Sidney Centre, 25; Unadilla charge, 17; Wells Bridge, 20; the other charges varying from 1 to 15, making a total of 710 who have professed conversion at our altars this year, and 540 who have joined our church on probation. We have received 440 in full membership.

Brother and Sister Van Gorder have assisted several of the pastors in the work and rendered efficient service.

Two camp meetings have been held. The one at Milford was pronounced the best one yet held on the ground. While the one held at Sidney in conjunction with the Chenango district was characterized with great spiritual power in the conversion of sinners and the quickening of believers. My relation with Brother Crydenwise during the six years we have been associated in the management of the meeting has been pleasant indeed. During these years the meeting has taken on new life and vigor. The old indebtedness has been paid and quite extensive improvements have been made. We have held two district Epworth League conventions. One at Windsor in July, and the other at Sidney the latter part of November. They were both largely attended and were distinguished by great enthusiasm.

We have also held four sub-district conventions which have been well sustained and were attended with good results.

Our ministerial gatherings have been uniformly characterized by thoughtful discussions of the live questions that are closely related to our work; and they have intensified the fraternal spirit that ever exists among true brethren.

In reviewing the results of the six years of labor on the district we find that while they are not all that we could have desired or under the circumstances have expected, yet we have made commendable advancement.

To have kept up the work in every department during these most severe and trying years, when the industries of the country have been prostrated and so many business interests have suffered defeat, we think is doing well. But by the fidelity and persistent efforts of a most earnest and loyal corps of ministers we have pushed grandly ahead on all lines. We now have about eleven hundred more members than we reported six years ago.

When we consider the large numbers who have died, and the many who have removed from the district, and when we further consider how thoroughly most of the records have been pruned, the showing is commendable indeed.

In 1891 the district paid for missions $1,973.00. This year an increase of more than $600.00 over this amount will appear.

In 1891 we had 50 churches and 26 parsonages. Now we have 54 churches and 31 parsonages. And although the value of real estate has greatly decreased, yet we report this year our church property valuation at $222,850.00; an increase of $50,100.00. And if the reports in the Minutes during these years are correct we have actually paid on old indebtedness and for church and parsonage improvements more than sixty thousand dollars.

There were received for pastors salaries in 1891 $17,812.00. This year more than twenty thousand dollars have been paid.

In 1891 we raised for conference claimants $456.00; last year $822.00.

Six years ago we had but 11 Epworth League chapters with a membership of 800. Now we have 47 chapters with a membership of 2480. We have gained during the past year 223 members. We have now 17 junior leagues with more than six hundred members. I am justly proud of our Epworth League work on the district.

The Sunday schools have also increased in numbers, attendance and efficiency.

In concluding my report I will say I have great reason for gratitude to my heavenly Father for His grace and preserving care. I have had health and strength to do my work. For these six years I have been laid aside but one Sabbath because of illness. I have become greatly attached to my co-laborers in the ministry and laity as well. I have been treated with the greatest consideration and kindness by both pastors and people.

Among the many bright memories of my life will be the pleasant homes and kind friends where I have been entertained and the most excellent love feasts, the deeply spiritual communion services and the worshiping congregations to which I have ministered.

The brethren gave me a most royal welcome when I came on the district, and they seemed so anxious to get rid of me and to make sure of my going that farewell receptions have been held for me in many of the churches around the district to give me a good send off.

"These are scenes in my life that are never forgot,
Which brighten and brighten as time steals away;
They add a new charm to the happiest lot,
And they shine in the gloom of the loneliest day."

These exceedingly pleasant memories will cheer as the years come and go.

I bespeak for my successor, whoever he may be, greetings as warm and co-operation as cordial.

Singing. After the reading of above report two verses of the hymn, "Blest be the tie that binds," were sung.

Honesdale District. Honesdale District was called. The character of W. L. Thorpe, its Presiding Elder, was passed and he reported his district as follows:

HONESDALE DISTRICT.

I am allowed to report a year abundant in privilege to labor, and encouragingly fruitful in results.

I have been favored with the best of health, and have filled an average of from five to nine engagements to preach, each week, besides conducting other services appertaining to quarterly meetings, and holding one hundred and thirty-one quarterly conferences.

During three months I assisted fully four of each six week-day evenings in "revival" meetings, mainly in the rural sections.

Brother C. H. Hayes for four months has been contending with a siege of inflammatory rheumatism, and obliged to secure others to do the preaching and most of the pastoral work. At present there is promise of full recovery, and at an early date he will be able to prosecute his work with usual vigor.

The health of the wife of Brother A D. David has been quite precarious all the year, which has somewhat restricted him in his work, yet Moscow, his charge, records one of its best years.

The infant son of Brother and Sister Harned, aged about two years, died the last day of December, after a brief illness; otherwise no shadows of serious illness or death have gloomed the parsonages during the year.

The district geographically is as it has been for a number of years. The field is fully occupied. The only growth inviting extension, is in the "coal region," between Forest City and the City of Scranton, and here chiefly to consider the foreign populations, especially the Italians.

Seven of the pastors are "supplies," two of whom are young men pursuing school work preparatory to entering Conference. One, an aged member of the Blue Ridge Conference; three have been and propose to continue as supplies, giving their entire time to work. One has been looking after a small field each alternate Sunday. These all are very acceptable to the people they have served.

Eleven of the pastors are in the "classes" pursuing the "Conference Course" of studies—three in the first, four in the second, one in the third, and three in the fourth year. The remaining seventeen are in their prime, doing probably the best work of their life. I might characterize the work of each and photograph them according to my personal fancy, but suffice it that I state, their work has been but the routinary of a Methodist itinerant; and only faithfulness, loyalty, earnestness and persistency could have accomplished this year the results as they will appear enumerated in the statistical tables; and underneath seen only as God the eternal, accounts are heart-throbs, tears, prayers and faith which no earth records can register, but they are chronicled in heaven.

The church property in the district is being well taken care of. The churches and parsonages in the larger places are kept insured, those in the rural sections are not as a rule.

I have counseled taking insurance in the "National Church Insurance," and think some policies have been written.

The old church at Blakeslee, on the Stoddardville circuit, has been replaced by a new one erected on the same ground. It is a tasty, commodious edifice, builded closely after a "church extension" plan, with an auditorium and a side room. The entire cost, $1,650.

Six young ladies entered with a well formulated plan into the enterprise, each desiring to secure from friends abroad one hundred dollars, encouraged by the tacit promise of a little help from the Conference Board of Church Extension, and after some two years of persistent effort, February 14th the fruition of their hopes was realized in the dedication of the house, completed in every part, and all paid save about $350, and that provided.

Brother G. H. Prentice has added another chapter to his genius as a planner and pusher, by leading the people of Waymart in enlarging, repairing and re-seating their church, at an expense of one thousand dollars, largely paid.

The Carbondale church membership, true to their traditions, have within a few months purchased a very desirable property in a growing part of the city, at a cost of $2,000.

The dwelling on it has been converted into a chapel, a Sunday School organized, week evening prayer meetings held,—a prophecy of future good. The No. 4 Chapel interests have greatly revived during the year. Thus, this Mother-Carbondale has two children to foster. Matured by a parentage "so true and tried," there is but one thought relative to the future of this "forward movement."

The congregation at Sterling have taken the initiatory toward extensively rebuilding their church. The spirit of "parsonage improvement" is increasing and being so needed on some charges I help it on all I can.

From reports in hand I report an aggregate of $4,000 expended during the year in improvement on church property, and fully as much on debts contracted previously for such purposes.

Inasmuch as it will be twenty-five years July 4th ensuing, since the laying the corner stone of the present church in Honesdale, preparatory to the observance of the anniversary, the last quarterly conference appointed a committee to arrange for the same. From present outlook that congregation will come to this quarter of century "milestone" with the edifice thoroughly refurnished, repainted and in the best of repair. Debts all paid, membership and congregation and Sunday School the largest in its history, and in every respect vigorous and hearty, ready to march into the next untramelled, anxious for conquest.

I am pleased to report the Sunday School interests take a long stride in the advance again this year.

The "supplies" are mainly from our own "publishing house," and where not, the counsel of the pastor has been overruled.

The Epworth League is increasing in favor, vigorousness and usefulness. At nearly every preaching appointment there is a chapter. I gather from conversations and inquiry made, the prayer meetings are increasing by larger attendance. The class leaders' reports show a somewhat better attendance, yet not nearly all our members are found with any regularity in the class meeting.

The quarterly meeting services are inceasingly well attended. In the rural sections I invariably hold services Saturday afternoons.

The Love Feasts are seasons of refreshing, never tedious, usually restricted in time for all to take part.

The nearly universal statement is, "never saw so many partake of the Holy Communion."

Revival meetings have been held on nearly every charge with gracious results, not all of which appear in the registered conversions, but of these there have been reported to me fully eight hundred, over six hundred of whom have joined the Church on probation.

Evangelist Rev. L. Shellhorn, a member of the Philadelphia Conference, assisted on Salem, Sterling, Moscow, Honesdale and Waymart charges, and Dr. Walker, a Presbyterian from Indiana, at Carbondale; otherwise the pastors have pushed the battle alone, only as they have helped each other.

In a word, all Church interests are in a prosperous state; remarkably so, considering the general depression that glooms the public.

The connectional and benevolent interests have been crowded. This will be evident to the thoughtful when I state from reports in hand, I anticipate each in the aggregate fully up to last year.

I have called attention in the quarterly conferences to the using the several committees appointed, but they are seldom ever notified of their appointment. I have more than hinted at the mistake and counseled that they be set to work, especially the "Missionary" and "Temperance" committees.

The revolution effected in the old "Salem Camp Meeting" is not easily believed. Those who have known it from the first, and all through, declared the attendance of resident and everyday congregations of the last meeting surpassed anything in its history, and the meetings were decidedly blessed.

Our Church periodical literature is not by any means extensively taken, excepting the Epworth Herald. The pastors have hard work to keep the lists from year to year. I attempt no explanation, but the fact remains, and I judge from lack of interest of the pastors. Some of them I know do try, and I oft speak of the value of a reliable, well authenticated church literature. "District Ministerial Association" meetings are held three a year which, with a District Epworth League Chapter, holding one general meeting and planning several "group meetings," with the "mid-year" examination and the numerous local interests that invite attention, the pastors of Honesdale District are kept very busy; assuredly they are not idlers nor are they laggards.

The only thing I cannot speak of praiseworthily is the general system to secure pastors' salaries operated by many of the congregations, which amounts to no system at all, and this is not peculiar to Honesdale District, I am sure. I feel confident that so much effected with methods so shabby, very much more could be with ease by the adoption and working of methods worthy to be dignified business.

In conclusion, I am confident the Church is advancing, her influence is being more and more potent, the morals of the people do improve from year to year. The progress is not as rapid as we might well wish or as it should be.

The saloon monster, hydra-headed and fiendish as he is well known to be, should feel more direct and fearful than he evidently does, the antagonism of the Methodist Episcopal Church, considering her utterances for "Temperance and Prohibition."

Advance toward Statutory and Constitutional Prohibition of the liquor traffic is far too slow, but I am confident temperance in sentiment and practice increases, and for it the church, in sermons, prayers and teachings is enlisted.

I desire to witness the day when the entire force of the church shall be marshalled fully and directly against king alcohol, and hurl him from his throne of domination; yea, thrust him to his death.

Stopping a moment to take the accounting, brothers, we will arouse us with increasing zeal and vigor, cheered by the reflection—

"Conquering now and still to conquer,
Rideth our King in his might,
Leading the host of the faithful
Into the midst of the fight.
See them with courage advancing,
Clad in their brilliant array,
Shouting the name of their leader,
Hear them exultingly say:
'Not to the strong is the battle,
Not to the swift is the race;
Yet to the true and the faithful
Victory is promised through Grace.'"

Chenango District—H. M. Crydenwise, Presiding Elder; his character passed and he presented the following report; Chenango District.

CHENANGO DISTRICT.

Faithfully, and in many cases heroically, the pastors and people of the Chenango District have walked together for another year, and, thank God, their labor has not been in vain in the Lord.

Ours being almost exclusively farm territory, visited for two successive years with protracted drouth, and depressed by the extremely low prices of all farm products, the work has been seriously hindered and embarrassed.

But by noble devotion, by continuous effort and sacrifice, especially by answered prayer and the blessing of God, the District has again made a good and commendable record.

I would be glad, as has been my custom, to present a careful, detailed account of the work of each pastor and each charge, but my time has not permitted me to do so. I can only say that all have done well, and that many have manifested a holy zeal, a spirit of self-sacrificing devotion to all the work and interests of the Church and kingdom of Jesus, such as we believe will stand approved of God, and such as is worthy to be commended of men.

Brother and Sister Lowry of Edmeston have been sorely bereaved in the death of their only child, a bright, sweet, darling girl. But grace has sustained them, and we believe the affliction has lead them into deeper, richer experiences of the Father's love, and made them even more useful in the work. With this exception the lives and health of the pastors and their families have been graciously preserved.

Early in the year Brother J. W. Mevis, a superannuated member of this conference, died very suddenly, at his home in Oxford. For nearly forty years Brother Mevis had faithfully served the Church as a true, pure, devoted, Christian minister. Few have ever lived and labored among us more truly and worthily loved and honored than he. Over much of Otsego and Chenango counties, where his life work was largely done, his name and memory will be tenderly cherished by thousands who were led to Christ by his ministry, or made better by his exalted character and influence. Heaven is enriched and earth made poorer when such as J. W. Mevis are translated.

Our Camp-meeting at Sidney Grove, held in conjunction with the Oneonta District, was a meeting of great spiritual interest and power. Year by year, upon these two districts, the true old-time camp-meeting interest and spirit has been rising, and the meetings becoming more and more valuable in spiritual quickening to our pastors and people and in the number of souls converted to God. Again we say, the Church and cause of Christ will suffer great and irreparable loss if we surrender, or allow to pass away, the valuable connectional influence, the evangelistic, revival power of the true Camp-meeting. With the spirit of worldliness so potent and omnipresent, we need, with imperative need, these special seasons, when pastors and people shall come together to wait on God, to mutually incite and stir each other up to holy living and to greater zeal in soul saving work.

In December last a most valuable Missionary and Epworth League convention was held upon the District. In this we were kindly and ably assisted by Drs. W. T. Smith and M. S. Hard, and also by Brother H. B. Johnson, our missionary from Japan, and Sister Fuller from India.

There has not been what would ordinarily be regarded as any great or flood-tide revival, with the scores and hundreds of reported conversions. But we believe there has been a true and very general revival of religion over almost the entire District. Prayer meetings, class meetings, young people's meetings, love-feasts and sacramental services are better attended and more earnestly spiritual, and on many of the charges souls have been converted and probationers enrolled during the entire year and in the regular weekly services. Special revival services, largely conducted by the pastors, have been held and souls converted on nearly every charge of the District. And what is worthy of special note, the number of probationers reported to me is as great as the number of reported conversions.

In the midst of the almost fearful financial stress, when on every hand there is loss, shrinkage and bankruptcy, such has been the care and fidelity of the pastors and people that all the benevolences have been well and nobly sustained. From nearly exact figures reported to me by the pastors, I believe that the District has held its previously honorable position, and that the collections for missions and all minor collections will be fully equal to, or in advance of previous years. (Since writing the above the treasurer reports that the district has advanced $104 on missions. This puts it above the established million-and-a-half line.)

There has been a steady and healthy growth in the number and work of our young people's societies. Nearly every charge has one or more chapters of the Epworth League, and we believe these are increasingly valuable and helpful in all departments of Church work.

Again, there has been a quite general improvement in our Church property, and on nearly every charge from one to five and eight hundred dollars have been expended in such improvement.

Now my work of six years on the District is done. "Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself, but he that putteth it off."

So now that the work is done, and the end of my term is reached, I may be allowed to indulge in a little of what may seem foolish boasting. First of all, and above all, I boast in the love and grace and faithfulness of God, exercised toward me and especially manifested in the work and toward the workers of my District.

Perhaps I may be allowed to say they have been years of continuous and hard work; but God has blessed and prospered the work and given us victory and enlargement in every department and along all lines. I have had continuous and almost perfect health. I have taken no vacation. I have not been absent from my District a single Sabbath. I have given myself wholly to the work. With a very few exceptions I have attended every quarterly conference and every quarterly-meeting service. For the six years I have taken my lunch in my wagon on the Sabbath, meeting every appointment, and meeting them at the appointed moment. In doing my work I have travelled 27,000 miles and averaged to preach five times a week.

Six years over this great territory, 100 miles long and 40 miles wide, with thirty pastors, and sixty churches or preaching places, pastors and people have in general labored together with beautiful harmony, and there has been no single case of unpleasant dissension, diversion or disruption.

With constant emigration to the cities and towns, and consequent decrease in population, we have made an actual gain in membership of over 850.

In these years of such serious and continued financial depression pastors' salaries have increased from $16,064.00 to $18,183.00. The missionary collections from $1,428.00 to $2,380.00, and all minor collections from $1,492.00 to $2,057.00.

In its gifts per member for pastors' salaries and benevolences the District now ranks second in the Conference. In an old settled community with no demand for new enterprises, more than $34,000.00 have been expended in rebuilding and improving our church and parsonage property. Now almost the entire of our Church property is in a most excellent condition and largely protected by insurance.

Again, out from the fullness of my soul I desire to recognize and magnify the grace of God manifested toward me and giving me continuous aid in all my work.

I wish also with great love and gratitude, to speak of the kindly, hearty coöperation of both pastors and people in all our work. My relation to, and my association with both, has been most pleasant and delightful, and these will abide with me as among the sweetest memories of the time to come.

With profound gratitude to God and to all those who have so supported us and coöperated with us, I surrender the District, confidently believing that united, well organized, and healthy in all departments, it has a future of great and abundant promise.

L. W. Peck

L. W. Peck, a supernumerary member, addressed the Conference. His character passed and on motion of W. L. Thorpe his relation was continued, and he was excused from further attendance at the Conference.

State Normal School.

The State Normal School, by its acting principal, Arthur M. Curtis, invited the members of the Conference to visit that institution. On motion of L. L. Sprague, the invitation was accepted and the time of visit was fixed at 2 P. M., Saturday the 10th inst.

Minutes Made Official. H. C. McDermott moved that the Secretaries be a committee to publish the Minutes, and that the approved Minutes be the Official Journal of the Conference. The motion prevailed.

J.B. Sumner. J. B. Sumner asked to be excused from further attendance owing to the death of his mother. On motion of A. J. Van Cleft he was excused, with expressions of condolence and sympathy from the Conference.

Binghamton District. Binghamton District was called, the character of L. C. Floyd, its presiding elder, was passed and he read his report as follows:

BINGHAMTON DISTRICT.

One year ago I was appointed to the charge of the Binghamton District. This territory is saddled across the state line of New York and Pennsylvania and is beautiful for situation. Some portions are like the mountainous region that Joshua assigned to Caleb in the conquest of Canaan. Thirty-eight pastoral charges and eight thousand five hundred members constitute the working force of the Churches.

This district has had a record of splendid supervision, and the honored names of Paddock, Bristol, Olin and Woodruff have often awakened in my mind and heart sacred memories of the past and weighty responsibilities for the future.

THE WORKMEN.

I found in this great harvest field thirty-eight pastors fully occupied with all the departments of Church work and life. Some were planning for the improvement of Church or parsonage property; others were struggling with Church debts and seeking their liquidation; others studying social problems, but all were engaged visiting from house to house and preaching the gospel of the kingdom to dying men. Not a single idler waiting for something to turn up; not a drone in this great ecclesiastical hive; but all working as if the life of the church and the redemption of the world depended upon their personal devotion. I could name every pastor and give in detail many of the things that each has done, but it would swell this report beyond the customary limits. If all cannot be mentioned it would be an invidious distinction to name a few. The health of the pastors and their families has been remarkably good, with two or three exceptions, and I have worked with them in perfect harmony, preaching from one to three times every Sabbath of the year.

CHANGES.

Early in the year J. C. Hogan, pastor at New Milford, left his charge and by permission of Bishop Vincent and the Presiding Elder of the Oneonta District, Brother Charles W. Babcock was appointed to the charge. In October last Brother A. W. Phillips, a supply on the Rush charge, resigned his work, and Brother Robert McLaren was appointed to fill out the year. Both of these arrangements have been satisfactory to the people.

OUR CLASS MEETINGS.

In many of the Churches the class meeting is not in the most healthy and prosperous condition, and in a few they are weak and ready to die; but in some of the charges the attendance is large, whole congregations remaining, and the tides of spiritual life flow as in the olden time. Some of the Churches record over fifty per cent. of the membership in the class service. We need not exactly a revival, but an earthquake to awaken us to our high privileges.

Our love feasts have been seasons of spiritual refreshing, and the communions have been crowned with the presence of the Master.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Epworth and Junior Leagues are generally organized and carried on with great promise of good. The reports show a steady increase and are of the most glowing character.

The emphasis of the work is placed where it should be, on spiritual lines; but the social and literary and mercy and help departments are in successful operation. Two district conventions have been held during the year, and sub-district conventions have carried the enthusiasm of labor over the whole field.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Our Sabbath Schools, numbering over seven thousand scholars, show life and growth and prosperity. Several new schools have been organized, and the advance in others will make our reports touch the high water mark for the year. Here our boys and girls are not only taught the word of God, but they are drilled in the catechism and trained in Christian experience, thus laying broad and solid foundations for the future Church. The standard of Sunday school teaching is not as high as it should be nor as high as it might, but it is rising, and the reviews by pastors and superintendents of larger knowledge and experience supplement the teacher's efforts to unfold the rich treasures of the Word.

CHURCH BUILDING.

In spite of the stringency of the times, the work of church extension has gone bravely forward, and several enterprises—all on new ground—have been carried to successful completion.

At Stevens Point, on the Lanesboro charge, a beautiful church has been built and furnished at an expense of nineteen hundred dollars. This was provided for by private subscriptions and offerings made at the dedication.

On the East Bridgewater charge, at Alford, a new church has been built at a cost of one thousand dollars, all of which is provided for.

At Fleetville, on the Wallsville charge, after a heroic struggle by the pastor and a few members, a handsome basement church was built at a cost of twenty-two hundred dollars, all of which was provided for on the day of dedication.

At North Bridgewater, on the Franklin Forks charge, a hall has been purchased, which is to be moved to a more eligible site, and this proposed change will greatly strengthen the work of the whole charge.

Two years and a half ago the Methodist Union, organized by my predecessor in the city of Binghamton, purchased a large corner lot on the "Morning Side" at an expense of twelve hundred dollars, two hundred of which were paid. Last fall the lot with its accumulating obligations was transferred to the trustees of the Centenary church, who assumed the whole debt and proceeded to build a chapel with a seating capacity, including the gallery, of three hundred and fifty people. The whole expense of lot, church and furnishings was thirty-eight hundred dollars, all of which was provided for at the dedication.

Under the advice of the Methodist Union I appointed a supply pastor for this new field last October, and over seventy have been at the altar for prayer. Last Sabbath over one hundred communicants took their first communion in the new church.

IMPROVEMENTS AND DEBT-PAYING.

The Churches have kept step to the march of improvement all the year. Parsonages and churches have been rejuvenated and debts have been reduced or paid.

At New Milford a debt of four hundred and sixty dollars has been paid, besides some improvements have been made.

Springville has beautified one of her churches at an expense of six hundred dollars.

Chenango street church has reduced her debt by the payment of one thousand dollars.

Dalton provided for thirty-seven hundred dollars of her parsonage debt; and Halstead has paid eight hundred dollars on her church debt.

Factoryville has paid four hundred, Susquehanna three hundred and fifty dollars for improvements. Other Churches have raised less sums; making for improvements, alone, three thousand five hundred and ninety dollars; and for church debts three thousand six hundred and twenty dollars, or a total expenditure of over seven thousand dollars.

CAMP-MEETINGS.

There are two campmeetings held annually; one at Carmel grove and the other at Dimock. The trustees of Carmel Grove association erected a splendid amphitheatre auditorium at an expense of sixteen hundred dollars and with a capacity of seating fifteen hundred people. About half of this was provided for, and the annual revenues of the association will provide for the balance without embarassment. At a meeting of the stockholders it was voted to close the gates to the public on the Sabbath; opening them for an hour or two to the immediate neighborhood and doing away with all Sunday trains and all Sunday traffic. This action is giving us gradually the moral support of the whole Christian ministry.

At Dimock large improvements are contemplated the coming season. And action is anticipated looking to a closer observance of the Sabbath. The religious interest at these festivals was most hopeful. A number of conversions were reported at both places and the Churches were edified together in love.

THE BENEVOLENCES.

Special attention has been given to the benevolent collections in the quarterly conferences, and where necessary in the public congregations. If among nations money constitutes the sinews of war it is equally true in our holy war for the moral conquest of the world. Our people have felt deeply the stringency of the times, but in spite of our church building and debt paying they have responded to the urgent appeals of the pastors to come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty. A number of charges have increased their contributions by a healthy advance, some at sacrifices which are heroic. I know that the pastors have been faithful to the collections, and sometimes at the risk of losing a part of their own salaries. Missions have advanced one hundred and eighteen dollars. The response to the collecton for the missionary debt was general, and between three and four hundred dollars were realized. Mrs. H. H. Crary of Binghamton, who gave last year five thousand dollars to the Church Extension society, has given this year five thousand more to the work of the Freedmen's Aid, thus making the Tabernacle Church the banner church of the conference in our general benevolences.

REVIVALS.

Last but not least have been the special evangelistic services. If Methodism means anything it means a revival continuous and widespreading. Most of the pastors are natural born evangelists and on every charge the fires of revival have been kindled and the fruits appear in the quickening of the church and the salvation of souls. Pastors have assisted each other with good results. In some cases the outlook has been discouraging, but the faith of the church has not wavered, and after continued and persistent efforts, the break has come and the tidal wave of salvation has swept the whole community. More than seven hundred and fifty have professed conversion and six hundred have united with the church on probation. After all these figures do not begin to tell the story. How meager are all our reports on the earth side. We touch only the surface. The best part of God's work can not be reported. Who can report prayers, and tears, and burdens borne, and journeys, and fastings, and watchings? Who can tell how one human soul touches another and brings it into sympathetic relations with Jesus the Christ? On the whole the year has been marked with blessed fellowship and prosperity. There has been but little said about the work in the papers; but substantial progress has been made on all lines by the preachers, whose devotion constitutes the glory of our Zion. The grand old doctrines of free grace and full salvation. May we preserve them on our banners as we march for the conquest of the world!

Resolution of Thanks.

The following resolution was presented by A. J. VanCleft and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, We learn with great pleasure that Mrs. H. H. Crary, of Binghamton, gave last year Five Thousand Dollars to the Church Extension Society, and this year Five Thousand Dollars to the Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Society, of our Church: Therefore, be it

Resolved, That a vote of thanks is due and hereby tendered Mrs. Crary for these magnificent gifts, and we assure her of our earnest prayers for God's blessing.

Wyoming District.

Wyoming District was called, the character of its Presiding Elder, J. G. Eckman, was passed and he read the following report of his district:

WYOMING DISTRICT.

The grand army of Christian workers within the boundary line of the Wyoming District have concluded another ecclesiastical year of heroic effort, sacrifice, and spiritual conquest. The pastors have done valiant service, and whatever has been accomplished bears the marks of their leadership. Each one has written a book in noble deeds, making a library too voluminous for me to review in the short space of fifteen minutes. I shall, however, briefly outline the leading results of their labors, which evince a zeal comparable with that of the heroic founders of our beloved Methodism. And first I will speak of the material growth.

NEW CHURCHES AND PARSONAGES.

At Anderson a beautiful church has been erected on the shore of Shawanese lake, costing $3,300, all of which has been paid. The lot, large enough for both the church and parsonage, valued at $1,000, was presented to the Society by Albert Lewis, Esq.

At Dorranceton, on the Kingston charge, a lot for a church and parsonage has been purchased at a cost of $2,000, and a chapel will soon be completed which will cost $2,800. A new society will be organized here very soon. A new church at Draketown, on the Lackawanna charge, will be ready for dedication soon after Conference. In the borough of Miners' Mills, on the Plains charge, a Sunday school numbering 150 has been organized, and $1,000 subscribed towards a new church, which will probably be built next year.

At Pittston a commodious, convenient and architecturally beautiful parsonage has been erected the past year, and is now occupied by the pastor and his family; $3,300 has been expended upon this house.

A new parsonage is in process of building at the Stewart Memorial church in Rendham, which will cost, when completed, about $1,400.

In addition to the new buildings named there have been several

CHURCHES AND PARSONAGES IMPROVED.

The church at Luzerne has been enlarged to double its former seating capacity, and made so beautiful as to be equal to a new one; $3,800 has been expended upon this splendid improvement, all of which is provided for in cash and reliable subscriptions.

A fine new pipe organ has been placed in the Plymouth church, with other improvements, amounting in all to $2,300.

At Centremoreland basement rooms have been fitted up, with other repairs, costing $650.

New heaters have been put in the churches at Avoca and Larksville.

Improvements have also been made on the churches at Maple Grove, Forty Fort, Glen Lyon, Mountain Top, Trucksville, Plains, West Nanticoke, Waverly and West Pittston.

Parsonages have been beautified and made more comfortable at Central, Derr Memorial, First church and Parrish Street church in Wilkes-Barre; Elm Park, Hampton Street, Court Street and Simpson in Scranton; Tunkhannock, Yatesville and Waverly. Askham has a new parsonage barn.

The foregoing making a total of expenditures this year for building and improving churches and parsonages of $24,000.

In addition to the building and improvements made, there have been several payments made on CHURCH DEBTS.

Who would think of paying church debts in these times? Why, strange as it may seem, the preachers on Wyoming District had the courage to undertake it. And payments have been made at Taylor, Ashley, Clark's Summit, Parsons, Simpson and Providence at Scranton, Plains and others. The greatest effort along this line was made by the Asbury Church in Scranton, under the leadership of their pastor, A. F. Chaffee, who actually undertook to raise a debt of $18,000. And he has so far succeeded in this herculean task as to have raised on subscription $14,700, with a fair prospect of finishing it up during next year. Already $5,500 has been actually paid in cash.

THE BENEVOLENT COLLECTIONS

have been carefully looked after and, notwithstanding the unparalleled business depression, will, I hope, reach the amounts raised last year; on some charges there will be an advance. We raised for missions last year $13,179, which is far in advance of the million-and-a-half apportionment, and we hope to reach that amount this year; $550 has been raised for the missionary debt.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE have had suitable attention given them, and the fifty-four Epworth League chapters, having a membership of 2,600, and the thirty-five Junior Leagues, with a membership of 2,000, have done most excellent work. The Sabbath schools are largely attended and very efficient in most places, the chief complaint being a lack of qualified and attentive teachers to meet the demands of the large numbers of intelligent scholars. The largest school is at Elm Park, Scranton, which has an enrollment of 1,200. The publications of the Methodist Book Concern are used in all of our schools.

The First Church, Wilkes-Barre, employs a deaconess, Miss Emily E. Cummings, who has done excellent work among afflicted people and the neglected children of the city.

At Elm Park, Scranton, the King's Daughters have raised $240 for the support of Miss Tillie Hawley, who does the work of a deaconess without the title. They have also furnished a room in the Lackawanna Hospital and sent flowers and fruits to forty-three persons, having raised in cash for the year $355.

The Welsh Mission at Wilkes-Barre has about maintained its former standing. The trustees have sold a lot, the proceeds of which are to be applied on their indebtedness, which, when paid for, will reduce their debt to $900.

THE WYOMING CONFERENCE SEMINARY,

The most important work of the year is that which has led more directly to winning souls to Christ. We have had many

GLORIOUS REVIVALS OF RELIGION.

I think every charge has felt a spiritual uplift, and I trust all have had souls saved. A large majority of the pastors report revivals of great interest. Among the larger numbers of conversions reported there are from Maple Grove circuit 125, Providence 68, Parish Street 60, Parsons 60, Clark's Summit 58, West Nanticoke 55, Forty Fort 50, Mountain Top 44, Simpson 60, Wyoming 46, Yatesville 42, Centremoreland 40, Central Church 38, Noxen 35, Lehman 33, with others just as important, considering all of the circumstances, making in all 1,208 conversions this year.

Brother Madison of Yatesville organized a new society at Laflin, after a successful series of revival meetings.

THE WYOMING CAMP-MEETING, held on the old grounds, was attended with spiritual fervor on the part of the Church membership, and a few persons sought the salvation of their souls. Efforts will be put forth to make the meeting of next August more efficient and successful.

Three of the pastors have served the full limit of the pastoral term: H. C. McDermott at Kingston, Will H. Hiller at Parsons, and F. H. Parsons at Waverly, Pa. These brethren have done honor to Christ's Church and to the Methodist intinerancy by their arduous and successful labors along all lines of ministerial work.

In October last F. A. Chapman of Forty Fort was transferred to the Michigan Conference, and E. V. Armstrong was transferred from that Conference to this and stationed at Forty Fort, where he has done excellent service.

It is with gratitude to God that we record the prosperity of our cause on the Wyoming District, and that the lives and health of our pastors have been preserved.

Two members of the Conference residing within the District have been called to their reward. William Keatley (a superannuated member) died suddenly early in the year, and George M. Peck, a supernumerary member, for fifty-one years a Methodist preacher, died in great peace on February 16, 1897. Both of these brethren were honored workmen, and doubtless well ready for the Master's call.

Our work demands more active efforts each year on account of the tide of immigrants which pour in upon us from all nations, together with the increasing worldliness of this age, both of which fan the vice of intemperance until it is eating the life out of our civilization.

Worldly amusements fasten upon our people in some localities to such an extent as to greatly hinder the growth of spirituality and the saving of sinners. We shall hope for the more steady tread of God's militant hosts in the old paths of Methodism, which are but the ways of gospel truth.

We trust in God that his work must move forward. The men of the past have laid broad and firm foundations upon which the laborers of to-day should build magnificent superstructures.

J. G. ECKMAN, P. E.

J. C. Hogan. The following communication, addressed to L. C. Floyd, Presiding Elder of Binghamton District, was read by the Secretary:

FOREST CITY, PA., Feb. 19, 1897.

REV. L. C. FLOYD.

DEAR BROTHER:—I am happy to inform you that I have decided to withdraw from the Conference and the M. E. Church. With best greetings.

Yours for Christ,

J. C. HOGAN.

On motion of L. C. Floyd, seconded by A. J. VanCleft, J. C. Hogan was permitted to withdraw from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church. By subsequent motion of M. S. Hard, L. C. Floyd was instructed to procure the Ordination Certificates of J. C. Hogan and deliver them to the Secretary of the Conference.

Owego District. Owego District was called, the character of its Presiding Elder, George Forsythe, was passed and he read his report as follows:

OWEGO DISTRICT.

Through another year has God brought the pastors and people of Owego district. A year marked by continued financial depression, and some measure of consequent discouragement, and yet a year of patient and persistent effort to meet current expenses and to sustain the various benevolent enterprises of the Church. A year not specially noted for widespread revival power, and yet a year during which hundreds have been born into the kingdom and gathered into the Churches. Personally I have reason for gratitude abounding, for continued health and ability to meet almost every appointment of the year, as well as for cordial greetings and welcome, which have done much to compensate for wearisome journeys and considerable exposure. The good providence of God has kept guard over our parsonages, and sickness or disability has been the exception and not the rule. Brother A. Brigham, a former member of our Conference, and of late years a resident of Newark Valley, a manly man and a Christian devout, last October was suddenly transferred to the Church triumphant, leaving a vacancy in the Church and community where he was honored and loved. Brother and Sister S. A. Terry have been sorely afflicted, as the Master Husbandman plucked the blossom of their home to develop and fruit in celestial gardens. Brother S. B. Keeney has during the year been heart-sore over the prolonged invalidism of his estimable wife, but rejoices in measurable restoration. Brother and Sister L. P. Howard have been summoned to lay away their son, Fenton, while in the prime of young manhood. Brother G. H. Northrup was compelled through failing health to seek work in a more genial climate, and Brother James Schofield, from the St. John's River Conference, has acceptably and efficiently filled the vacancy at Mehoopany.

The Church property upon the district is mostly in good condition and quite generally insured. There has appeared no pressing need of new enterprises in the way of building churches or parsonages, and the stringency of the times has made conservatism the rule in regard to such enterprises. There is some prospect of a new church at North Rome during the coming year. The benevolent collections have been faithfully attended to, and I trust the sum-total will compare favorably with former years. On several charges there has been a gratifying advance, while others may disclose a slight falling off. To the appeal of our missionary secretaries, Owego district responded with $300 for the society's indebtedness, and also upon a somewhat smaller scale to the appeal of the Freedman's Aid Society. I think the collection for Conference claimants has been regarded and pushed with more than usual solicitude. The spiritual condition of the district is good. The quarterly meetings have been seasons of interest and profit. Prayer and class meetings are well sustained. Upon almost every charge, conversions are reported, aggregating I judge, six hundred or more. The Epworth League with her fifty six chapters has maintained her record for efficiency and usefulness. The district convention at Candor was a grand success, while sub-district conventions at Spring Hill, Harford and LeRaysville have been held with much of interest and profit. The Junior League in such communities where the population is sufficiently compact is maintained with vigor. The Sunday school interest is in a flourishing condition, I judge increasingly so. Loyalty to our own lesson leaves and helps is the rule, and but few of our schools have suspended operations during the winter months. I wish I could give a more encouraging statement in regard to our Church periodicals. The number of papers taken is yet small in comparison with their value and usefulness, still we hope for improvement in this most important interest. If our membership could only be brought to realize the worth of one of these weekly visitors in the home, the number of subscribers would be vastly increased.

Four of our pastors, C. M. Surdam of Waverly, A. J. Cook of Berkshire, R. M. Pascoe of Meshoppen and S. A. Terry of Barton, have completed the full term of five years and must "move on," followed by the esteem and love of parishioners and friends. Four charges, Flemingville, South Danby, Orwell, and Speedsville, have been served with great efficiency by young men, who, although they had not "proved the ministerial armor," have proved themselves workmen that need not be ashamed, Carl Councilman, A. L. Hobart, J. W. Johnson and C. D. Skinner. Revivals have occurred, and in all interests these charges have experienced an uplift. Our Church at Athens has enjoyed a year of wonderful prosperity, one hundred and eleven received on probation, $900 paid on the Church debt, a society united, growing and enthusiastic, are devoted to God, and deeply attached to their indefatigable pastor, Geo. A. Cure. The last quarterly meeting with its hosts of communicants was indeed a benediction. Our Church at Sayre has experienced a ray of light upon her weary way. A patient and self-denying effort during the year has resulted in the payment of $1,500 upon the debt which for years has been such an incubus. Some thirty conversions are reported. The pastor, Thomas Harroun, has labored skillfully, and watched over his struggling charge like a wise and tender father. The prospect has brightened, while still that Church is worthy of all sympathy and prayer and help.

As the result of special effort in revival work, there have been reported to me, conversions as follows: Nichols 17, Flemingville 34, Apalachin 30, South Danby 42, Spencer 12, Orwell 25, Rome 25, Litchfield 30, Little Meadows 12, Sayre 33, Athens 111, Tioga 24, Speedsville 15, Danby 18, Owego 26, LeRaysville 45, Mehoopany 28, Waverly 10, North Tioga 10, Meshoppen 50. At some other points the number may be smaller, and yet through faithful effort the Churches have experienced an uplift, and seed has been sown, which under God shall blossom and fruit for eternal harvest. On Barton charge, the church at Ross Hill has been renovated and beautified. On Danby charge, old Morris chapel has been newly roofed and painted. The Candor church has been painted and repaired. The Orwell Hill church, a landmark for miles around, lost steeple and roof in the windstorm of September, but the pastor and people rose above their discouragement and promptly "set their house in order." On North Tioga charge, the "chapel" has been painted and improved. In passing we give a tribute of sympathy for the pastor, O. H. P. Armstrong, for whom the year is closing under a cloud of sickness in his home. Lockwood has secured a bell, the tones of which summon the worshippers from up and down the valley. At Flemingville, Wyalusing, Camptown and Little Meadows, new organs have been purchased, to aid in rendering praise to God. Minor amounts on almost every charge have been expended upon the church and parsonage property, so that while the financial stringency has tended toward conservatism, we judge that the Lord's property has not been allowed to deteriorate. The matter of insurance upon church and parsonage property has received due attention, and in several cases there is now protection, which previously was neglected. There is no need to prolong this report, or to occupy the time in particularizing. I think the year has been one of earnest effort on the part of the pastors and people, under a cloud of financial straitness. I know that results have been attained which, while they may not measure up to our anticipations in all respects, yet constitute a reason for glad thanksgiving. I acknowledge the divine watch-care over pastors and people. About 75 have been reported as transferred to the Church triumphant during the year, some like a "shock of corn" fully ripe, some in the prime of usefulness, and some while youth still lingered. I have been able to attend 128 quarterly conferences out of 132, have preached 170 sermons, and gladly render praise to God for health of body and spiritual joy under the onerous labors of another year. I thank Him for help, I thank the brethren and friends upon the district for kindly welcomes and appreciative words. May "our Father" accept and bless the work of the year, forgive its imperfections and failures, and let the sunshine of His love light up the homes and the future of Owego district.

Report of the Trustees of Wyoming Seminary.

Dear Fathers and Brethren: With devout gratitude to the Giver of all Mercies we record the work of another year. The Seminary is having an encouraging degree of prosperity in these times of suffering.

We have enrolled during the year, 473 students. The personnel of our student body is very gratifying and we shall gradute the largest class in the history of the institution. The Faculty remains the same as one year ago, except that Miss Winifred Rogers, a graduate of the Fine Arts College of Syracuse University, has been secured as teacher of Vocal Culture. Our nineteen teachers are all specialists and thoroughly equipped for their work. A number of them would add strength and dignity to any of our College Faculties. The net gain of more than $125,000 of values in buildings, improvements and endowments during the administration of President Sprague; and the corresponding growth of the school in numbers and teaching force, sufficiently commend his eminent fitness for his position. The Lady Principal, Mrs. M. Mason Beebe, is doing meritorious work for the moral and social as well as mental culture of those under her care.

Two or three recently reported cases of illness led the school authorities to invite a number of the Pennsylvania State Board of Health to make a thorough investigation of the grounds and buildings and the sources of milk and water supply. After careful inspection, the Health officer pronounced the sanitary conditions of the institution to be first class in every particular.

Some valuable additions have been made to the library during the year, and about $500 has been expended in improvements.

The work of instruction in the seminary is conducted on the most modern principles. The great aim is thoroughness. No better training in English may be had anywhere. In Mathematics we offer all that the old College Course offered. The same may be said of Physics and Chemistry. The work in our laboratory is probably superior to that of any Academy or Seminary in the land. We can challenge comparison also in our College Preparatory work. Twenty-six of our students entered Colleges or professional schools the past year. We are now represented by more than one hundred students in about a dozen of the leading Colleges and Universities of the country. From each of these comes the testimony that no better preparatory work for either the technical or classical courses, is done anywhere that at Wyoming Seminary.

The department of Music maintains its high reputation and is as usual filled with music students.

The Art School is doing superb work, and is being made especially attractive by the introduction of life models for drawing. A progressive spirit also characterizes the instruction given in history, literature, rhetoric, modern languages and elocution. The latter department has grown so rapidly that an assistant teacher has recently been employed.

Our College of Business, while meeting with intense competition, is having an average year of prosperity. The able and dignified administration of Principal Dean; the sound moral, and thoroughly practical business principles taught; the contact with Seminary students and teachers, the high degree of confidence enjoyed among the leading business men of the Valley, place, we believe the Wyoming College of Business in advance of competitive schools within its patronizing territory.

The Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations have each maintained two payer meetings a week, and several conversions among students have occurred during the year.

Athletics receive reasonable attention in the Seminary. Extremes are avoided and those exercises encouraged which, under competent direction, tend to the development of a sound body. We have one of the finest athletic fields in the State, splendidly fitted with running track, courts for tennis and alley ball; foot ball and base ball grounds, and other facilities for the conduct of out-of-door sports.

We have some very pressing needs.

1. We need the active coöperation of all the pastors of this Conference in drawing attention to the superb advantages your Seminary offers. We want you to send to us, as you do, young men who are preparing for the Christian Ministry; but we also want you to direct to us from all your charges young people of good character and family who have not the Ministry in view. The Conference Seminary has its own peculiar field. It takes young people at the most impressible age, and placing them under the best educational advantages and the most positive religious influences, it can do, and does do, more for them than the Secular School or even the College. But Conference Seminaries must have, to live and flourish, the active sympathy and prayers of Conference Members.

2. We need a Gymnasium. This is imperative. The students demand it, the educational trend of the times demands it, and we cannot much longer do without a first-class building for this purpose.

3. A large increase of endowment is needed if our Seminary is to continue in the future the glorious history of the past.

Brethren, give us your prayers and support and make your school as its location and record indicate that it should be, peerless among the preparatory schools of the land.

We would respectfully recommend the names of Geo. S. Bennett in place of Geo. S. Bennett; Wm. Connell in place of Wm. Connell, and Abram I. Decker in place of Abram I. Decker, for election as Trustees.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. S. BENNETT, President. H. C. MCDERMOTT, Secretary.

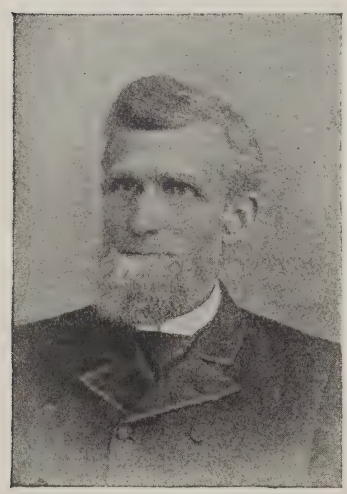
Memoirs.

Memorial Service.

The service was held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Oneonta, N. Y., Sunday, April 11th, at 2:30 P. M. The Conference Committee on Memoirs was represented by its Chairman, Rev. Austin Griffin, D. D., who presided. The singing was led by Rev. W. L. Thorpe. Scriptures were read by Rev. J. L. Race, and prayer was offered by Rev. H. M. Crydenwise. Memoirs were read as follows:

Rev. John W. Mevis by Rev. Austin Griffin, D. D.
Rev. William Keatley by Rev. L. L. Sprague, D. D.
Rev. George M. Peck by Rev. Austin Griffin, D. D.
Rev. James Benge by Rev. H. B. Benedict.
Mrs. Rev. Egbert Kilpatrick by Rev. A. D. Decker.
Mrs. Rev. F. N. Smith by Rev. David L. McDonald.

Rev. J. W. Mevis.



On the morning of April 27th, 1896, John W. Mevis, an honored and beloved member of the Wyoming Annual Conference, was suddenly translated from the earthly to the heavenly life.

He was born in the town of Caroline, Tompkins county, N. Y., January 9th, 1835. By the death of both his parents in his early childhood and being an only child, he experienced all the bitter grief and loneliness of a homeless orphan boy. When nearly nine years of age he was received into the home of his mother's brother, James Eaton, who then resided in the town of New Lisbon, Otsego county, N. Y. After his uncle's death, which occurred a few years later, he remained in the family until nearly sixteen years of age. "Quiet, conscientious and thoughtful beyond his years; unselfish and exceedingly careful lest he should say or do that which was wrong; of a cheerful and hopeful disposition, yet bearing a spirit of pathetic sadness that always appealed to the sympathy of his friends." The shadow of orphaned childhood, without home or friends, followed him through the years.

When thirteen years of age, he attended a camp-meeting in Otsego county, where Dr. Reuben Nelson and hundreds of others of the stalwart toilers in our Zion were converted. Brother Mevis surrendered his young heart and consecrated his life to the service of Christ. He was very soon thereafter received on probation in the Church at Mount Vision, Rev. A.

E. Daniels, preacher in charge, and Rev. L. D. Davis, junior preacher. The following year he was baptized and received in full connection by Rev. W. Bixby, who was then pastor of the charge.

At seventeen years of age he entered a tin-shop and hardware store in Laurens as an apprentice. A few months later the Rev. C. G. Robinson of blessed memory, then pastor of our Church in Laurens, expressed his conviction to the young apprentice that he ought to preach the gospel. Members of the Church also expressed the same judgment. He says: "I felt that I was called to preach, but how could I? No money, no education, no friends to help me, and bound in apprenticeship for a term of years." His employer died, his business was discontinued and the apprentice was again free. Discouraged at every point in seeking to prepare himself for the ministry, he came to Oneonta and engaged himself for two years to J. P. & S. P. VanWoert, tinners, resolved, he said, to smother his convictions for a season at least. But God ordered otherwise. Here again the Divine call was reiterated, "Go, preach!" Convictions returned with redoubled force, until his soul cried out, "Woe is me, if I preach not the Gospel!" He yielded the controversy, surrendered to duty and wrote: "Oh what peace came to my soul." He spent some time in Cooperstown Seminary, and later, under Rev. E. G. (now Bishop) Andrews in the Cazenovia Seminary. In the Spring of 1859 he was received on probation in the Oneida Annual Conference. In 1861 he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Janes and was received in full connection in the Conference. In 1863 he was ordained Elder by Bishop Baker. He fell into the Wyoming Conference in 1868 by the division of the Oneida Conference, After preaching seven years he was compelled by the failure of his health to superannuate for one year, but during that year for at least six months he did regular service as a supply. In 1893, owing to increasing physical weakness, after thirty-four years of heroic service, he was compelled to halt in his work, and asked for and received a superannuated relation. He located in the village of Oxford, N. Y., where he had formerly served one term as pastor.

In the Spring of 1860 he was united in marriage with Darlisca White, of Ames, N. Y., who walked by his side in most loyal and loving helpfulness until he was taken and she left. An only and dearly beloved daughter, by a very sad and sudden departure, preceded him by a few months to the better land.

Brother Mevis served the following charges, and in the order named: Schuyler's Lake, Worcester, Edmeston, Westford, Laurens, Morris, Otego, Plymouth, Butternuts, Unadilla, Great Bend, Plains, Oxford, Sherburne, East Worcester, Milford, Milford and Westville, Clinton street (Binghamton). He won many souls for Christ on every charge he served, and on many of them he had extensive revivals. With a frail body at the best, nothing but the most heroic nature coupled with the highest and most complete consecration to duty altogether inspired and upheld by the abounding grace of God, could have enabled him to give so many years of arduous and glorious service to the gospel ministry.

His departure was sublime and just as he would have chosen. During a blessed season of religious awakening in Oxford, while the ringing testimony and glad songs of young converts in which he so much delighted were making sweet melody in the town and scores were being saved, although exceedingly weak in body, our dear brother felt the spirit of labor and thirst for conquest coming upon him as of old. He was among the first to offer himself for house to house visitation, had just completed the canvass of his district, and flushed with the richest joy to be experienced this side heaven, he returned to his home and his work was done. Then for two or three days he rested; on the morning of April 27th, after an unusually restful night, he rose cheerful and happy, and attended to his accustomed home duties. After breakfast, with his beloved wife, they together read God's word, then bowed in worship; he tenderly prayed for the young converts, that the unsaved might be reached and saved, then committing himself and dear one to the faithful care of Him who through all the years had held them both so close to His heart of love, he rose from his knees and resumed his seat. Very soon a change swept over his countenance; he settled back in his chair, folded his arms over his breast, closed his eyes, and before aid could be summoned, without a struggle, a word or a sigh, he passed to the skies. One of the purest, bravest, one of the most conscientious and loyal members of Wyoming Conference heard from the lips of The King that morning, "Well done!"

Rev. William Keatley.

William Keatley was born in Ireland, January 28th, 1828, and died in Kingston, Pa., June 7th, 1896.

He was the son of a prominent Wesleyan local preacher and school-teacher and was early trained in principles of piety. When but a child he was, according to the custom of the times, confirmed in the Established Church. But the imposition of hands upon his head did not bring satisfaction to his heart. His home training pointed to a more definite experience in religious things. He often referred to his pungent conviction of sin and intense longing for deliverance. For four years the search for pardon was continued before his faith took hold upon God, and the peace which passeth all understanding filled his heart.

At the age of 25 he left his native land and came to America. He resided in Philadelphia two years; afterwards he taught school for two years in Schuylkill county, Pa. There he received his license to preach, and determined to devote himself to the Christian ministry. Feeling the need of further preparation, he entered Wyoming Seminary in 1857. He boarded himself and worked his way through the institution.

In 1859 he was received into the Wyoming Conference on trial, and assigned to the Newport Circuit which embraced the territory comprised in the Ashley, Askam, Nanticoke and Wanamie charges, with much more. After two years of laborious and successful work, he was admitted into full connection and ordained Deacon by Bishop Simpson. His next field was Plains, where the Lord honored the faith and courage of His servant with great prosperity. In 1863 he was ordained Elder by Bishop Janes. His subsequent appointments were: Shepherds' Creek, two years; Danby, two years; Barton, two years; Slaterville, two years; VanEttenville, one year; Little Meadows, three years; Rome, two years; Herrick, three years; Northmoreland, two years; Yatesville, two years; Larksville, three years; West Nanticoke, three years; Wanamie, three years; Pringleville, one year. On sixteen different charges for thirty-five years he faithfully preached the gospel and labored in much earnestness and self-denial for the salvation of souls, Difficult fields always fell to him, but he cultivated them with a fidelity and persistence that never failed of success.

Brother Keatley was a superior preacher. His sermons were always Scriptural and deeply spiritual. Their preparation evinced a considerable degree of literary skill and much thought on the deep things of God. Their delivery was often accompanied by a pathos, unction and tenderness that touched all hearts.

He was an excellent pastor. Much of his time was spent in house to house visitation, praying with the people in their homes and patiently, tenderly seeking to interest them more deeply in spiritual things.

He was a man of strong convictions, especially was he an uncompromising foe to the liquor traffic. In it he saw the aggregation of all villanies, and for its prohibition to the last he labored and prayed and voted.

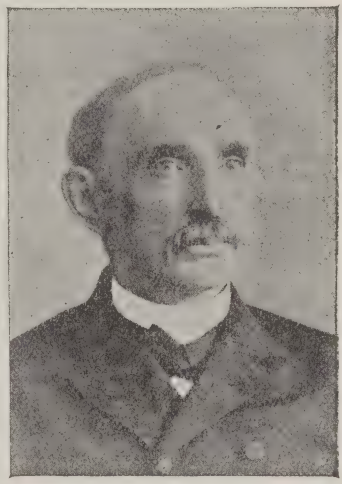
He was a modest man but his modesty only heightened the charm of a life in which conscience and Christ were enthroned.

He was a man of mighty faith in God, and as frank and open-hearted as a child. He was always brotherly, sympathetic and helpful. As a natural sequence of such a life's ministry there is a history of revivals on every charge he served, and great will be his rejoicing in the day of the Lord Jesus. He did much also to build up the material interests of the Church. In his retirement his warm heart and transparent, genuine character made him a benediction to his pastor and the local Church. The feeling of the Kingston Church toward him was expressed by one who said: "His very face is an inspiration to me to live better!" His summons came suddenly. Sunday, June 7th, he was in his usual health and spirits. About six o'clock he entered his dressing-room to prepare for the evening service. One in the house heard him fall heavily to the floor, and hastening to his assistance found that "he was not, for God had taken him." It was an ideal way to go. His work had been well done, and like a watch-worn and weary sentinel, he suddenly put his armor off to rest in heaven.

Our brother was married July 16th, 1863, to Miss Elizabeth Swallow, a sister of the Rev. Miner Swallow of this conference, who survives to mourn his loss. Two children were born to them, Edwin M., a civil engineer in Charleston, W. Va., and the Rev. William J. Keatley, pastor of the Watsessing Church, Newark Conference.

Farewell, old friend, and may the Divine Spirit seal upon our hearts all there was of Christ in thy life and death.

Rev. George M. Peck.



The subject of this memoir was the eldest son of the distinguished Dr. George Peck.

Born in Forty Fort, April, 17, 1820, he died in the city of Scranton, February 16, 1897, in the seventy-seventh year of his age. He sprang from a remarkable family. Five brothers, including his father, were prominent in the ministry. Jesse T. Peck, one of the honored Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was one of the five.

In his childhood and youth, he was in direct touch with the heroic spirit of early Methodism in this country, when the canvas-covered Pennsylvania wagon was the only palace car for the Methodist itinerant. When long and tedious journeys were required to reach the remote circuits, and the rugged forest and mountain roads made such journeys exceedingly wearisome for the brave itinerants and their families. With these experiences our brother was familiar. His preliminary education with such meagre advantages as the schools of those times afforded, was mainly under the direction of his distinguished father. Early in his teens he entered Cazenovia Seminary as a student. At nineteen years of age he left the Seminary and took charge of his father's farm in the Wyoming valley. He early developed a vigorous physical constitution. He loved books and possessed a fine literary taste, but the open sky, the field and the forest charmed him, and he delighted in the free life of a farmer. But God had other work and a broader field for him, and after five years of delightful quiet home life, he heard a Divine Voice summoning him into the work of the ministry. He was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. When about nine years of age, his father being the pastor of our Church in Ithaca, N. Y., he listened to a thrilling exhortation by a young man by the name of Cross (later the distinguished Dr, Joseph Cross). Under the exhortation he was strangely moved, he gave his young heart to God, united with the Church and lived in irreproachable fellowship for nearly seventy years. At nineteen years of age, he was united in marriage with Miss Sarah Butler, of Pompey, Onondaga Co., N. Y. A more faithful and helpful wife never stood by the side of an affectionate and devoted husband. For fifty-eight years in tender, loving confidence they walked side by side. Brother Peck joined the Oneida Conference in 1845. He served the following charges, and in the order named: Salem, Canaan, Beech Pond, Mt. Pleasant, Pittston, Wyoming, Providence, Owego, Pittston (second term), Carbondale, Providence (second term), Presiding Elder of the Lackawanna District, Unadilla, Berkshire, Cherry Ridge, Salem (second term), Clifford, Park Place (Scranton.) This is but a bare outline of the itinerary of this dear man of God in his official relation to the great work of the Church of Christ. Another record, the book of remembrance, kept at the throne, contains far more than earth's imperfect registries. His years were crowded full of high and holy purpose and faithful labor. There was no arrogant assumption with him, but always and only a firm adherence to duty and uncompromising devotion to principle. His gentleness was power. He reached men, convinced and captured them by the resistless logic of love. Everywhere Brother Peck was the Christian gentleman. He bore about him a native dignity of manner felt and acknowledged by those who met him, either in public or private life, while at the same time he was invested with a sweetness of spirit and urbanity of manner that invited the confidence and challenged the profound respect of all. Brother Peck could not grow old, his hair grew white until it became literally a crown of glory, his form stooped slightly, like the stalk of well ripened grain; his sight grew dim, then failed altogether; his strong, rapid, vigorous step grew shorter and faltered; hands grew weak and trembled; bodily functions seemed impaired, but George M. Peck could not grow old. He kept himself abreast with the thought of the age. With the young men of the Conference and the young people of the Church, he was in most hearty sympathy. A marked characteristic of our brother was his native modesty, always retiring and unassuming, he was not well known, save by those who were so fortunate as to be admitted into the inner circle of his fellowship and life. As a pastor he was tender and helpful. He moved among his people as a man conscious of his high and holy calling, and would be true to it. He possessed in an eminent degree the rare and happy art of voicing just what the breaking heart feels concerning its own loved ones departed. Here was a secret of his power. He had the keen and tender sensibility of a poetic nature and indeed some of his poems would have done no discredit to the literature of the day. Although beyond the three-score years and ten of life, his spirit retained the vigor and freshness of youth. For his devoted wife and affectionate sons, his love was ardent as the heart-beat of youth. It was this which led one of his sons to remark to the writer, "I cannot think of my father as being an old man; to me he did not seem to be aged." He left a widow and three sons, to whom the world seems poorer since he left it, and Heaven the richer to them since he gained it. His faith in the gospel and in its saving power was unwavering to the last moment. He attended to all the details of his temporal affairs, suggested the order for his funeral, talked of death as pleasantly expectant, as though it were an invitation to a banquet, for such indeed it was to him, even the marriage supper of the Lamb.

Our brother not only left tender words for his family, that they will hold in loving remembrance, but when lingering near the crossing he remembered his brethren of the Wyoming Conference also, and left a special message for them. It was on January 31st, 1897, at 9:20 o'clock Sunday evening, that he being in extreme feebleness whispered into the ear of his son William these words as his last message to his brethren of the Conference: "More than fifty-one years ago I joined the Oneida Conference. I had a good home in the Wyoming Valley and desired nothing better in that way, but I could not see that a farmer's prosperity would equal the spiritual prosperity of a man engaged in saving souls. Of course time has not been my own, but I rather thought I would be allowed to put in a fair day of service, and beyond my expectations I was permitted to preach my fiftieth anniversary sermon, although without my eyesight. I expected that the Lord would keep me a home and he has. I have lived to see the accomplishment of over half a century in the presence of my brethren. The Lord has been good to me. We shall meet on the other shore."

Brother Peck sank to his final rest as a weary child would fall asleep on its mother's bosom. In the presence of his faithful wife and sons, whose ministrations were tender and unceasing, with conscience void of offence, with an honored and useful life complete, with age quite beyond three score years and ten; his last fond messages spoken, with faith exuberant and hope inspiring; sustained by the presence and power of the Divine Comforter, he conquered death and ascended to the skies. Crowned at last.

Rev. James Benge.

(Supply—Member of South American Conference.)

The Rev. James Benge was born at Stapleton, Sussex, England, in the year 1840, and died at Harpursville, N, Y., January 17, 1897.

This Conference owes much to the mother country for her gifted sons who have graced our pulpits; and although a member of the South American Conference, the subject of this memoir gave several years of successful labor on Oneonta District, and it is eminently fitting that his noble ministerial life and character should be gratefully and lovingly remembered in the memorial services of Wyoming Conference.

James Benge was well born, descending from an old Puritan family that for five hundred years had leased farm lands in the forests of the Sussex borders. Here he attended school and on graduation at eighteen obtained a Queen's Scholarship entitling him to a three years' course at the Normal College of Glasgow. His graduation there enabled him to hold the position of Head Master in any government school in the United Kingdom, and for several years he was professor of English and the classics in the Royal Masonic Institute for Boys in London. He then accepted a position in the Queen's Wesleyan College, of Taunton, in Somersetshire, where he remained for twelve years as lecturer and professor. Here he was also president of the Y. M. C. A. of Taunton, and during all this time devoted his spare hours to work for the Master, preaching almost every Sunday in adjoining villages, and addressing Sunday Schools. His conversion took place during his early boyhood, and from those earliest years he was a Methodist, and for many years he served as a local preacher in Somersetshire,

Coming to this country in 1886, Brother Benge joined the church in Oneonta, of which his cousin, the Rev. A. B. Richardson, was pastor, and soon after received his first appointment under Presiding Elder J. N. Lee, at Wells Bridge, N. Y. After two years of service there Brother Benge and his wife, and Miss Sabra Wakeman, of Unadilla, went out as missionaries to Iquique, Chili, under the Bishop Taylor self-supporting work, taking charge of the Methodist College, and the local Methodist Episcopal church. Here they remained over seven years, through the troubled days of the Revolution, when failing health compelled him to seek a change, and Bishop Fitzgerald granted him a year's leave of absence. But his health did not permit his return, and at the last session of this Conference he was appointed pastor of the Harpursville charge. Here, as elsewhere, he proved himself a workman who needeth not to be ashamed, and quickly won the respect and love of the whole community.

Having preached as usual on Sunday. December 13th he was stricken with paralysis in the evening on his return home, and after four weeks of patient waiting and intense suffering, the departure came to one who was resigned and submissive, who could speak of his full assurance regarding his future happiness, in blissful expectation of meeting his Master face to face, and "having no longer to learn of Him out of books." Sunday was the 19th anniversary of his happy wedded life, as he departed on Monday morning. His widow and helpmeet in all his travels and labors for Christ is comforted with the benediction of a noble and consecrated life.

Mrs. Rev. Egbert Kilpatrick.

Elma A. Stanton, wife of the Rev. Egbert Kilpatrick, Bainbridge, N. Y., was born in Scott, Wayne county, Pa., August 28, 1855, and died at her home in Bainbridge, Oct. 4, 1896. About three weeks prior to her death she gave birth to a boy baby and every symptom was favorable for the speedy recovery of her health and strength. She was taken ill Friday night, Oct. 2, and the sudden development of Bright's disease rendered her unconscious, and on Sunday evening she died. The funeral was held at the Bainbridge Methodist Episcopal church and the interment was in the Bainbridge cemetery. At the funeral very fitting and sympathetic remarks were made by the Revs. A. J. Van Cleft, M. D. Fuller, William M. Hiller and Alexander D. Decker. Other ministers were present and took part in the services. Sister Kilpatrick was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Stanton, who for many years were loyal members of the Stanton Hill church on Lake Como charge. Theirs was the preacher's home and the children early learned to respect God's servants and house of worship. Elma Stanton was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church when sixteen years old, and at once became interested and active in all departments of Church work. She was instrumental in leading her future husband to Christ, and they were married March 28, 1875. She did not know her future, but when her husband decided to enter the ministry she put her hand in his and, like faithful Ruth, said: "Whither thou goest I will go, and where thou lodgest I will lodge; thy people shall be my people and thy God my God." Adversity did not discourage her, neither did promotion and prosperity make her proud, but she lived a beautiful Christian life, quiet and unassuming, and was always an inspiration to her husband. He now declares that she has helped to make him what he is, and now that she is gone he and his boys are proving the sustaining grace of God as able to keep and comfort them, and they are endeavoring as best they can to make their home bright and happy. Of the six members of the Stanton family only one remains, Mrs. Clara Kilpatrick, Carbondale, Pa., who is fondly caring for the little motherless child.

Mrs. Rev. F. N. Smith.

On Friday morning, the 17th day of July, 1896, there went out from the Methodist parsonage, at Windsor, N. Y., the sad announcement that Fannie Robbins, wife of the Rev. Frank N. Smith, had departed this life. The intelligence, while it was received by her many friends with sadness, was not unexpected. For several months that slowly creeping, but ever fatal malady, consumption, was robbing her soul of its tabernacle. During her long continued illness, Mrs. Smith manifested heroic patience, receiving without complaint the providence of her Heavenly Father. It was just midnight, Thursday, July 16th, that she passed away. Thus terminated a useful and beautiful life.

The funeral services were held under the direction of the Presiding Elder, Rev. A. J. VanCleft, assisted by the pastors of the local churches and the Revs. J. B. Santee, Wm. M. Hiller and A. D. Decker in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Windsor where her last public work was done.

The numbers gathered at the funeral from far and near, attested the esteem and love in which she was held. The tributes paid to her memory were touching and tender. The remains were taken into the Wyoming Valley where, in the old cemetery at Hanover Green, but a few miles from the place of her birth, she was laid at rest. The burial service was read by the Rev. J. G. Eckman, who but three years before spoke the words that made her the happy bride of an itinerant Methodist minister. It was an affecting coincidence to those who knew it, that two of the young men who bore the body to its resting place were among the ushers who led the happy bridal party to the altar of the church.

Fannie Robbins Smith was born in the historic Wyoming Valley near Nanticoke, nearly twenty-six years ago. She was a daughter of Robert and Mary Dunn Robbins. On the ninth of August, 1893, at the altar of the Methodist Church at West Nanticoke, Pa., she was united in marriage to the Rev. Frank N. Smith, of which union two children were born, of whom one, a two-year-old boy, survives his mother.

She did not live long to do the work that engaged her mind and heart. But in that life is not measured by spans of years but by deeds and faithfulness in the use of gifts and opportunities, her life cannot be called a failure. The last work of her life was to assist her husband in a series of revival meetings which were remarkably successful in the salvation of souls. Better than in a shaft of granite will her memory be perpetuated in the lives of the young people whom she influenced for righteousness. Beautiful in life, sunny in disposition, gentle in manner was this woman of God. Truly it may be said of her: "Being dead she yet speaketh."

Reports of Committees.

AUDITING.

We have carefully examined the tabulated lists prepared by the Conference Treasurer and his assistants, and find that the amounts called for by these lists are fully provided for by the bank deposit of $38,805.28.

The attention of the Conference is called to its recent action, to the effect that the auditing committee of next year verify the disbursement of the above amount.

We have also examined the financial statement of the Conference Epworth League Treasurer and find the footings of receipts and expenditures to be correct; the expenditures, however, were not accompanied by vouchers.

We find that the agent of the Preachers' Aid Society is not ready to submit his accounts for our examination. The same is also true of the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Trustees. This is not to be construed, however, as a reflection upon the business integrity of these men; inasmuch as the lateness of the Conference action, giving us jurisdiction in these matters, has not afforded them sufficient time for the preparation of their reports.

We suggest that hereafter all Conference appointees, receiving monies, be prepared to submit a report of their accounts to the auditing committee at each session.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The Bible is the accepted standard of morality and religion among Christians. It is the basis of all civilizing power. Its jewels of truth set into human life beautifies and enobles it with virtue, love and piety. It is a book of wisdom, truth and righteousness. It has beauty, strength and permanence. It has given light for the mind, comfort for the heart and uplift and hope to the life of man for ages past. It is a treasure for all the ages to come. It will meet the inquiry of all minds and supply the spiritual need of all men to the end of time. Its power to civilize and to save is recognized and appreciated, but not to the extent of its merits. The prosperity, safety and comfort of the world, the advance and hope of nations and the happiness of homes and of hearts are such that we enjoy them only through the potency of divine truth to direct mankind aright

Your committee can report but $546 for the Bible cause from the collections of the several charges of the conference this year.

Whereas, The American Bible Society is an efficient distributor of this chief need of men, therefore,

Resolved, That we, the members of the Wyoming Conference, will endeavor to raise an increased amount for the society next year.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION has a separate and distinct mission. Where congregations can not entirely help themselves to a church building, the aid of our board is sought.

How Does It Help?

Both by donating and loaning money to needy churches. In case of donations, such churches are to be kept insured, and if burned what was donated is to be returned. If the church shall pass to another denomination, the money donated must come back to the treasury.

In case of loans, conditions are indicated and accepted. Low rates of interest are named.

Times for payment are specified. It is a business transaction, giving great temporary aid.

What Has Been Done?

Five and three quarter millions of money is no inconsiderable sum. Yet this has come into and gone out of the treasury of the BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION. It has aided in constructing 10,311 churches. There are over 1700 loans now outstanding in every state and territory in this nation.

A gift of $250 will secure the building of a "Memorial Church," to be named as the donor may indicate.

Half a dozen such churches have been secu ed within this Conference during the past year. Money for two of these has been paid during the present session.

What Is Needed!

More information! The people know less about church work and its details than we suppose. "The Annuity Fund" is a fortunate mode of giving, as those who need the interest, secure it during their life time.

One hundred dollars will build a chapel on the "Mountain Fund Plan."

"Ten dollars a year" will swell the ranks of the Royal Army. There are 184 grants promised on specified conditions, and 110 applications on file waiting for consideration. To satisfy these alone will require $117,000.

Our Conference is asked to raise $6,000 this year. If needed, $1,200 of this may be expended on our own territory. Pastors may watch for opportunity to suggest that our board be remembered when wills are drawn: as $10,000 came to us this month from such painstaking.

We therefore suggest: 1. That the presiding elders apportion $6,000 for church extension to the various charges. 2. That we will seek to use disciplinary methods to their best advantage, in our effort to raise the entire apportionment. 3. That our people shall be instructed as to the utterances of the bishops and general committee viz., that when $4.00 is given for missions, give $1.00 to CHURCH EXTENSION.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. W. LOWRY, Chairman,
MANLEY S. HARD, Sec'y.

CHURCH MUSIC.

History shows that most of the great moral victories of the past have had the cheer and inspiration of song.

If greater moral influences are exerted over nations by the songs they sing than by the laws they make, how very important that the church of God sing those songs whose sentiments and doctrines reveal the great truths of inspiration. We therefore recommend:

First, The use of our Methodist hymnal in the public services of our churches; and that each pew in our churches be furnished with the hymnal to encourage congregational singing.

L. E. Sanford, President.
N. W. Barnes, Secretary.

CONFERENCE COLLECTIONS.

We note with pleasure a general increase in the amounts raised for Conference collections, and pray God's blessing may rest upon the members of our churches and congregations who, during this year of financial hardships, have not withheld their offerings from the Lord's treasury.

We earnestly urge the taking of the collections early in the year, and that every member of the church and congregation be given the opportunity of contributing to each collection.

J. S. Custard, Chairman.
Will H. Hiller, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

It is difficult to correctly estimate which has the greater influence the one upon the other—religion upon education or education upon religion. In the process of the soul's salvation the understanding must be enlightened before the will can be reached and affected, and the after-steps can be taken with assurance only as the understanding is kept constantly under illumination. It is becoming more and more a matter of remark that converts to our holy religion are steadfast in the faith in proportion as they sustain a high level of general intelligence. This fact was observed early in the history of the Methodist movement, and educational provisions for those Christianized by our ministry, began almost simultaneously with the opening religious life of our people. Methodists have never lost sight of this necessity; and while they may not have been able to furnish facilities as fast nor as widely as the farthest or ultimate need, yet their provisions in this direction have been remarkable—the pardonable pride of the Church itself, and the wonder and admiration of those outside our communion.

It is natural that, with these convictions on the relation of education to religion, great emphasis should be laid upon the training of the ministry. How shall they preach and teach and persuade, who cannot enlighten the understanding and judgment? And how shall they who have not the heavenly bread of knowledge "feed the flock of Christ?" And yet, with all this insistence upon an educated ministry, the Church has not failed to see that there must needs be the same insistence upon an educated laity, in order that the Church may do its best work in the world.

This emphasis has found practical expression and direction with us in the noble institution of learning which have sprung into existence and which have been kept well equipped for their work as the years have gone by, and in the accumulation of funds by which those who would seek knowledge but were handicapped for want of means might be assisted in the attainment of the thing desired; so that our young people, listening to our exhortations that they ought to be highly educated, cannot with good ground protest that what we urge is made impossible to them through lack or inadequacy of facilities or means.

The province of this Report is to make reference to and offer commendation of those institutions which, because of their nearness and commonness of interest with us, are rather more ours than those located outside our natural territory, though of all such the same words of endorsement which we say of our own might with equal truth be said of them.

And first of all is Wyoming Seminary—a young university of itself, whose very life and atmosphere is so near like that of a college as to cause the visitor to forget for the moment that it pretends to do nothing more than preparatory work. But this preparatory work is of so high a grade that the Seminary ranks among the first in the land—in the same class with, and of equal if not superior grade to, either Phillips Exter or Phillips Andover. The student body is a fair test of such an institution, which in this case fills the buildings and is of superior intellectual order. It is an ideal school as to both management and methods, and deserves our heartiest coöperation in every direction.

Syracuse University next claims our attention. Destined to become the greatest university in Methodism; holding the advantage in point of location; great in its chancellorship and faculty; broad and progressive in its departments; rich in its encomiums from authorities prepared to judge of the sort of work it does; blessed in its alumi filling positions of high trust and responsibility all over the world. Our financial obligation to it should be kept constantly before us, and every opportunity embraced to lift this obligation and to put other advantages at the disposal of the management.

Wesleyan University shares in our interests, hopes, and coöperation. Its splendid history, its long and generous contributions to the culture of the Church and of the world are occasions of profound joy; and its present sturdy life deepens the satisfaction we have always felt in the institution. We point our young people to it with utmost confidence.

Boston University is the realization in every respect of what the best minds have conceived as belonging to an establishment of its kind. It is located "in the dark, gray city" where Longfellow declared the scholar should live, and where Ex-Secretary Evarts says the professions having the care of the bodies and estates and souls of the people should be taught—"where the most bodies, estates and souls are." We would call particular attention to the School of Theology of this University which is just now offering special advantages and inducements to those desiring the best biblical and theological training.

Dickinson College represents the highest scholarship and the most improved methods and facilities, and we rejoice in the advantages which it offers and in the high moral and religious influences which prevail in it.

Of the Woman's College of Baltimore, which offers advantages of higher education of our young women, we would speak in warmest terms of praise and commendation, extending our congratulations upon the superior grade of work which it maintains and upon all it is enabled to do through enlarged capacities.

Drew Theological Seminary has a secure place in our regard, and we assure the institution of our continued appreciation of its constant endeavor to maintain a theological school, both in its scholarship and devotion to the interests of the Church, of the very highest order. We express our sympathy to the Seminary over the death of Dr. George R. Crooks, late Professor of Historical Theology in the institution, and record our high esteem of manhood, scholarship, and worth to the Church at large.

We express the hope that the day of prayer for colleges will be universally observed by our Churches, and the occasion used to concentrate the thoughts of the people upon the importance of higher education, and for securing more liberal financial contributions for our educational institutions.

We recommend that our people more thoroughly study the work of the Board of Education, and consider the advantages and opportunities of the observance of Children's Day.

We would call special attention to our financial obligations to Wyoming Seminary and Syracuse University, and would respectfully remind pastors not to permit anything to displace the regular educational collection, and request them that they bring this collection to the Conference, not forwarding it to the Board of Education, that the amounts so collected may apply on our obligations to the institution named, according to a rule previously established.

We nominate Rev. E. B. Olmstead as Trustee of Wesleyan University, to succeed Rev. E. B. Olmstead, for the term of five years.

We nominate for appointment as visitors of the several institutions of learning, the following persons:

[See list as published under "Educational Institutions."]

L. B. Weeks, President. B. P. Ripley, Secretary.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your committee respectfully report the following amount raised for Episcopal Fund, 1896–97:

Binghamton District	$ 271
Chenango District	151
Honesdale District	189
Oneonta District	159
Owego District	212
Wyoming District	546
Total	$1,528

An advance over last year of two dollars.

Twenty charges report no collections for this fund.

Resolved, That we endeavor to raise our entire apportionment next year.

J. V. Newell, Chairman.
J. R. Wagner, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We are assured that the Epworth League is no longer an experiment, but has become one of the efficient forces of our church in winning souls to Christ. We recommend that an effort be made to organize a Chapter at every preaching place now without one within the bounds of the Conference.

Believing that the most hopeful opportunity for Christian training is found in the mind and heart of the child, we advise that a Chapter of the Junior League be organized wherever a half dozen children can be brought together under the supervision of a Christian instructor.

We would call attention to the International Epworth League convention, to be held in Toronto, Canada, next July. We trust that Wyoming Conference will be largely represented in that body of earnest Christian workers.

It is with great pleasure that we report an advance in Epworth League work.

The reports from the charges within the Conference show an increase of twenty-five chapters and 2,507 members. Also an increase of seventeen chapters of the Junior League and 979 members.

H. A. Williams, Chairman.
H. H. Wilbur, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

Recognizing the important position the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society occupies in the work of our Church, in elevating the poor and illiterate of the Southland, we recommend that each Church give one service to the cause, take a collection, and if the amount falls below the apportionment, that additional effort be made until each charge shall raise the full amount asked. This plan would not only pay the debt of $200,000, but double the work in the present quadrennium. We base these recommendations upon the following facts: About 55 per cent. of the colored population are still illiterate; the work is sadly crippled for want of funds; the appeal for the payment of the debt on the society brought only $10,000; our schools are suffering by reason of reduced numbers of teachers; four universities are without presidents to save expenses; the African people are evidently here to stay, and in the near future will constitute a large part of our population; and already 600,000 of them are communicants of our Church on what was once slave territory, also because our Church has been, and is still to be, specially interested in and related to this work. We further advise that the sum of $5,200 be apportioned to our charges for the present year.

MID-YEAR AND CONFERENCE EXAMINATIONS.

In harmony with the plan of examinations recommended by the General Conference:

Resolved,

First—That the system of mid-year examinations be continued, and that they be held on the same date, at a place on each district to be designated by the chairman of the examining committees.

Second—That all candidates are expected to attend the mid-year examinations.

Third—That we instruct the committees to accept duly accredited certificates of examination in the studies of the regular course from institutions of learning which are recognized by the University Senate, and from the Conference Seminaries, and "that committees be authorized to report certificates presented this year in lieu of examination."

Fourth—That the certificates of examination shall state the grade upon which the study was passed, for the satisfaction of the committee and for permanent record.

Fifth—That for the purpose of paying the expense of a lecturer from a point within the bounds of the Associated Conferences, to lecture at the Conference session, a fund be created by the Conference.

Sixth—That we request the Bishop to appoint the full number of examiners allowed by the discipline.

M. D. Fuller, Chairman.
William Frisby, Secretary.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

Your committee congratulate the Conference on the increased interest shown, and the commendable progress being made in the matter of Ministerial Support, by the charges embraced in the Wyoming Conference. This will be illustrated by the following statement:

Last year 51 charges failed to pay the pastor's salary in full. This year only 44 charges thus failed.

Last year the aggregate deficiency was.....$3,874
This year the aggregate deficiency is but 2,217

A reduction this year of.....$1,657

Or over 40% less deficiency than last year.

If this rate of progress be continued, the Conference Minutes of 1900 will record the creditable fact that not a pastor of Wyoming Conference has gone without his pay in full.

When it is remembered that, without exception, the deficiency reported is on the charges paying the lower grade of salaries—usually from $300 to $600—and that often the pastor whose salary is deficient has no parsonage, but is compelled to pay his own rent out of a forcibly reduced salary, already too meager for a comfortable support, it will be seen that the burden of loss is upon brethren who are least able to bear it.

No preacher can be at his best in his work, while embarrassed by inadequate support, or whose mind is disturbed by inability to properly care for his family, or to meet his financial obligations.

We heartily appreciate the earnest and faithful efforts made by many of the less able charges to meet the financial demands of the work, and assuring these charges of our hearty sympathy with them in the unselfish work of caring for these interests, we beg to suggest that the deficiencies heretofore existing may possibly be reduced, if not entirely obviated, in future, if our beloved bretheren, the stewards, will make provision, at the very beginning of the Conference year, for carrying out the directions of the discipline relating to pastoral support.

Respectfully submitted,
W. L. Linaberry, Chairman,
E. V. Armstrong, Sec.

MISSIONS.

In answer to the prayers of the Church and the concentrated labors of those who have gone out to the front of battle, God has been marvelously opening the doors of the heathen nations, until to-day the whole world for Jesus is not an impossibility in the next decade. The rounding of the century may see the glorious prophecies fulfilled and the Church taking up the refrain, "The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord and His Christ." Toward this end the reports from the field indicate we are surely tending. Converts are made to Christianity faster on some of the mission fields than they can be received and instructed in the Church. They are flocking to King Immanuel as doves to their windows. They must be cared for, and the well organized work of our mission stations must be maintained.

The needs of the hour are: First, the release of the Missionary Society from the embarrassment of debt, contracted not by mismanagement but by the growth and necessity of the work. Because of this debt the appropriations have been cut down and the cause of Christ greatly injured.

Secondly, we must urge our people to greater liberality in their missionary contributions, and a more thorough and systematic husbanding of their money for this, the greatest of all benevolences. There are scores of young men and women who have been thoroughly trained for mission work, and have heard the call of their Master, "Go preach my gospel," who cannot give the Bread of Life to the famishing, because there are no funds to send them. "How shall they preach unless they be sent?"

Thirdly, the Church should send up her prayers to God, night and day, that there may fall a tremendous baptism of the Holy Ghost upon the missionaries, and harvest-white fields that the Church at home may "have the eyes of their understanding enlightened, that ye may know what is the hope of His calling, and what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power, which He wrought in Christ when he raised Him from the dead, and set Him at His own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principalities and power and might, and domain, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come; and hath put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be the head over all things, to the Church, which is His body, the fullness of Him that filleth all in all."

We rejoice that the Wyoming Conference advanced its collection during the year, and we urge that all our people be given the fullest information concerning the mission work, by the spread of missionary literature, especially "The Gospel in all lands" and "The World Wide Missions," by missionary prayer meetings, concerts, and Sunday school organizations, and, in short, all the methods suggested by our discipline for raising the last dollar of our apportionment.

JOHN BRADSHAW, Secretary.

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

The Christian Sabbath is divinly appointed in the interests of humanity. It is essential to Christianity and our civilization.

At this time, however, many dangers threaten this sacred institution. With Sunday trains, and Sunday excursions, and Sunday beer-gardens, and Sunday newspapers, and Sunday traffic, and Sunday visiting, and Sunday lounging, and Sunday riding for pleasure, we stand in awful danger of losing this holy day.

It becometh every minister to raise his voice in trumpet tones against every form of Sabbath desecration. Every Christian should set his face as a flint against the evil tendency of our times in this matter. All lovers of true civilization should stand squarely opposed to the lowering of God's standard in reference to this day. Therefore,

Resolved, 1. That with the word of God before us, as our authority, and the beautiful example of the city of Toronto, Canada as our object lesson, and the interests of the church we dearly love upon our hearts, we will stem the unholy tide that rises about us, and beat it backward to its own place.

Resolved: 2. That by right living and doing we will show others how the Sabbath should be observed.

Resolved: 3. That we recognize the North Eastern Pennsylvania Sabbath Union, whose general secretary, Rev. F. A. Dony, is a member of this Conference, as a valuable agency in promoting the work of Sabbath protection, and we commend the same to the hearty support of our people.

(Signed,)
J. L. RACE, President,
G. O. BEERS, Secretary.

PUBLICATIONS OF THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN.

Your committee would respectfully report its great gratification that our publishing interests are prosperous, notwithstanding the monetary stringency of the times. The net sales of the concern at New York for the year ending October 31st, 1896, were $856,495.43, with a profit of $155,907.57. The net sales of the Western concern for the same period were $987,517.95, with a profit of $139,950.73. This superb showing is only made possible by the loyalty of preachers and people. We believe our denominational publications to be equal to any other literature, and for our own people excelled by none. It is a satisfaction to know that our Sunday school supplies, with but few exceptions, are used throughout the Conference. While a generous patronage is given to the advocates circulating within our bounds, the lists are far too small. We congratulate ourselves upon the re-election to the editorship of the Northern Christian Advocate, of that genial and brotherly man, the Rev. J. E. C. Sawyer, D. D. Editor Sawyer wields a facile pen and is making the paper exceedingly attractive. The clear cut editorials, the scholarly contributions and the introduction of illustrations make the Christian Advocate the leading periodical of our church. We reiterate our conviction expressed last year that "the Methodist Review is indispensable to every Methodist clergyman." We pledge ourselves to renewed fidelity in the support of these great interests. Respectfully submitted,

A. F. CHAFFEE, Chairman.
H. C. MCDERMOTT, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we give expression to our highest appreciation of the second official visit of our honored Bishop Henry W. Warren, D. D., LL. D., to our Conference; that we assure him of our appreciation of his brotherly attitude toward the members of our Conference, his courtesy toward all, and the firmness and dignity with which he has presided over the sessions of the Conference; and we desire also to express our sincere thanks for his able addresses, his very instructive lecture on Friday morning, and his soul-stirring and edifying sermon on Sunday; and we assure him that he shall ever be remembered in our prayers.

Resolved, That the selection of Conference Secretary by ballot, as was done this year, is the only wise method, and we hope to see this method prevail in the years to come.

Resolved, That we express our thanks to the Secretaries of our Conference for their courteous manner and for the faithful performance of their arduous duties.

Resolved, That we express our thanks to the Wilbur National Bank for its gratuitous banking facilities, so cordially accorded the Conference.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to the D. & H. R. R. Co., for half-fare rates granted to the ministers of our Conference.

Resolved, That we greatly enjoyed our visit to the State Normal School of this town; and we hereby record our high appreciation of the courtesies extended by the efficient corps of teachers.

We congratulate the youths of the Empire State on the opportunity thus afforded them to secure the qualifications essential to good citizenship.

Resolved, That we record our appreciation of the able and instructive lectures delivered by the Rev. G. K. Morris, D. D., of Boston University, and recommend that arrangements be made with one of our theological professors, for a course of lectures at our next annual Conference session.

Resolved, That our thanks are due and are hereby given to the "newspapers" which have given such excellent reports of our Conference, and to the busy, yet courteous reporters.

Resolved, That we extend to the pastor and congregation of this Church and to all others who assisted in entertaining the Conference, our sincere thanks for the courteous treatment and kind hospitality we have received from them during our stay; and we assure both pastor and people that they have our sincerest prayers for their welfare and prosperity.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

God has established the Church in the earth. To her is committed a glorious work. No other organization among the children of men can supplant this holy institution. Her membership comprises those who, having repented of their sins, consciously accept the Christ as their Saviour, and publicly identify themselves with the Kingdom of God among men.

By Christ-like living the doctrines of our holy religion are brought to the serious consideration of those who know not the King of the Universe.

As the Master's representatives in this progressive age, we view with alarm the entrance among us of any spirit of worldliness, or any spirit of fanaticism—these are devils that, if within our borders, must be cast out.

Holy men of God, by careful and prayerful researches in literature and in science, are year by year beautifully unfolding to the Church the Holy Scriptures. Deeper and closer study of the Word is leading men more and more to the realization of the need of the baptism of power that alone can come by the Holy Spirit, under whose inspiration the Church now goes into all the earth assured that the kingdoms of this world are to become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ.

SUBSCRIPTION FOR CONFERENCE MINUTES.

The amount subscribed for Conference Minutes last year was $297.10. The amount this year is $299.15. Increase $2.05.

Your committee recommends that the present method of raising funds for the Conference Minutes be continued for next year.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Realizing the importance of the early instruction of our young people in the Bible and evangelical truths, and feeling our obligation to the coming generation, it behooves us to make our Sabbath Schools places to attract and keep our children and young people. These schools should be well manned with the most efficient officers and teachers, so that the Sunday School may be a real training for service in the Master's vineyard. We note with interest.

First. An increase in our collection this year for the Sunday School Union; also the considerable increase of missionary money reported by the Sunday Schools.

Second. The increased interest in securing the best helps for the work—those published by our own Book Concern.

The central idea in Sunday School work should be the salvation of precious souls. True our reports show that a number of scholars were converted during the past year, but this is only a fraction of that which may be done the coming year, every one doing his duty.

Especial attention should be given to the Home Department, a new and valuable feature in Sunday School work. "There are in every congregation many who, through age or infirmity, or from other causes, are unable to attend the Sunday School. Many of these wherever they are, might give the hour of Sunday School to the study of the lesson, and for their benefit there has been established by the representatives of Sunday School work in all the leading denominations this special Home Department. Its members are regularly registered as connected with the Sunday School, and they are in every way recognized as connected with the school." Full sets of records and helps for organization are published and for sale at reasonable prices by our book room representative.

May we be ever active in encouraging in every way this most helpful work of drawing our young people to the Master.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANK N. SMITH, Chairman,
CLINTON B. HENRY, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

The liquor traffic is not a benefit to society, but an injury, and therefore should not be classed as a business, but as a crime. Its harmfulness and criminality may be seen in the prison cell, in suffering families and degraded manhood; yet this sin against God and men is declared to be right by laws which authorize men to continue this traffic, and permits them under its protection to create and foster that appetite in men that will lead them on to crime and death.

This traffic is made the means of most of the wholesale political corruption, and is responsible for a large part of the bribery by which citizens lay aside their own judgment and vote according to the bidding of another. The saloon is made the chief center of political influence in many places, and we are asked to help put into office those men who have secured their nominations through the saloon forces.

The ballot is the means by which the liquor traffic is upheld and continued in power, in the politics of the land; therefore, resolved,

First, That the only relation that can properly exist between the state and this traffic is the relation between government and crime, and there should be no compromise, but constant opposition until there is enforced legal prohibition.

Second, That we cannot expect wise and wholesome administration of official duties by men whose election has been secured by the gift of liquor, as an inducement to vote for them, and that such conduct by any party or candidate is a pledge beforehand that they will not disturb this traffic, and may justly be so interpreted by every Christian voter.

Third, That the ballot in the hand of a Christian ought always to be used against the saloon on all questions related to this traffic; that as liquor men make this their chief issue, so should the Christian make this question first in casting his vote.

We recommend that one person be appointed from each district to constitute the Permanent Committee of Wyoming Annual Conference auxiliary to the Permanent Committee of the General Conference.

H. L. ELLSWORTH, Secretary.

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

This is a subject of great magnitude, one deserving the most careful consideration. It stands united not only with our past, but also with our future. To clearly and truly state the condition of the country, is not only to record the influence of what has been, but to speak with prophetic voice of what shall be. It is possible to view our condition from the standpoint of a pessimist, and declare that ruin is on every hand. It is also possible to forget the dangers that surround us, and the evils which threaten the very life of the nation. But we record our gratitude to God for the material blessings which are ours. He has crowned the year with his goodness, notwithstanding the financial depression which we deplore, yet we have great reason for gratitude rather than complaint. While we read of wars and strife between some other nations, while tyranny and oppression are found in many quarters, peace reigns within our borders, and the land we love so well is a refuge for the oppressed of every land While we rejoice in the prosperity which God has given us we would not forget that these blessings bring with them great responsibilities. We are only stewards of God's gifts. He has blessed us that we may be a blessing to others. But what of the evils and dangers that threaten our national existence?

Intemperance is the great curse of this land, and including the tobacco and cigarette habits as well as the using of intoxicating beverages, and in spite of all of our efforts in teaching the effects of alcohol and narcotics on the human system, in the schools of many of the states of this country, yet the use of these stimulants is increasing much more rapidly than the population. It has been said that morality has not kept pace with the increase of population since 1867, It was said before and during the war that this country could not exist half slave and half free, so we ask the question, Can this nation exist, half intoxicated and half sober? We are told that more young men in our large towns visit saloons, than visit the churches. It seems to your committee that the great question between capital and labor is as far from settlement as ever. Every year witnesses great losses by the employed and employer; probably $200,000,000 have been lost in the last twenty years by strikes and lockouts. There must be great disturbance in the business of the land to produce such industrial conditions as now exist. That there are wrongs on both sides is no question. It is to be deplored that so many of the people of this land are non-churchgoers. These classes are the workingmen and the farmers. Your committee earnestly prays that those in authority in this nation may not break down civil service reform, but will strengthen the laws we already have, and thereby carry the reform to perfection. What is the remedy for all of our ills? We want more of the principles of the golden rule interwoven with our legislation. "Do unto others as ye would that they should do unto you." We need the law and gospel both, for many do not care for the gospel unless the law is behind it. We shall continue to pray and labor for the destruction of all evil and the consummation of all good.

Respectfully submitted.

T. F. HALL, Chairman.
A. F. BROWN, Secretary.

TRACTS.

Your Committee on Tracts respectfully submits the following report: Last year thirty-nine charges reported no collection for the cause of tracts, and of the $950 asked of the Conference, our societies paid only $403. This ought not so to be. Owing to the cheapness of this literature; its great service in teaching vital questions of spiritual life; the variety and excellency of the subjects treated, and the fact that a percentage of the dividends of this society goes into our mission work, we recommend:

First, That every charge take the collection.

Second, That tracts be placed at the disposal of our Epworth leagues for distribution.

Third, That the great truth that, "He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much," be impressed upon the hearts of our people.

NOTE.—There are discrepancies between this report and that of the Statistician, caused by the carelessness in the reports as received from the various charges, and the addition of moneys after the reports are in. If greater care were exercised by the brethren, greater accuracy could be shown in these reports.

113 "CARBON" PENCIL.

To obviate that tired feeling and dull pain in the fingers, which invariably accompany the use of the ordinary black lead pencil whenever too much pressure is brought to bear, or it is used any length of time, and at the same time to produce an article that is very smooth, very black and very firm, thus adapting it for all kinds of work where a fine, smooth, black and legible mark is required, this pencil cannot be too highly commended. For writing on soft paper it surpasses anything heretofore produced; and for sketching, draughting, and heavy shading it is indispensable.
